SEPTEMBER 2025

Kickoff Event A Huge Success

Strong Support for Cary Brown for District Attorney

SUPPORTERS FROM ACROSS NORTH LOUISIANA packed the historic Big House in Ruston on July 29, 2025, for a fundraising event for Cary Brown who is a candidate for Third Judicial District Attorney which is made up of Lincoln and Union Parishes. Young voters from the community volunteered as greeters and distributed water and name tags to supporters as they arrived. The beautiful, patriotic themed floral arrangements throughout the house were arranged by Jana Beck of Blooms and Grace. Supporters enjoyed delicious food from Ponchatoulas, Log Cabin and Campatori Catering and campaign logo cookies from Uptown Downtown were a sweet treat. Beverages were provided by Rabb's and Kevin Beasley photographed the event.

Reverend Maurice White gave the invocation to the packed crowd and former Third Judicial District Attorney Bob Levy introduced Cary who was joined on the stage by current Third Judicial District Attorney John Belton. Belton is not seeking reelection, so Prosecutor Cary Brown is running for that open position.

With over 22 years of legal experience in both criminal and civil courts, Cary has built a reputation as a fair and committed prosecutor. He currently serves as the City Prosecutor for the City of Ruston, and has served as Assistant District Attorney for Lincoln, Union, Claiborne, Jackson and Bienville Parishes.

Cary not only has the support of the District Attorney and the Sheriffs of the Third Judicial District but also Sheriffs and District Attorneys from across North Louisiana.

Because of his record as a fair and committed prosecutor, Cary has the support of the current District Attorney as well as Sheriffs Stephen Williams of Lincoln and Dusty Gates of Union Parish which make up the 3rd Judicial District. Cary has the support of DA Steve Tew of the 4th Judicial District; DA James "Jimbo" Paxton of the 6th Judicial District; DA Chris Nevils of the 8th Judicial District; DA Danny Newell of the 2nd Judicial District; DA Schulyer Marvin of the 26th Judicial District; Retired DA Bob Levy; Sheriff Marc Mashaw, Ouachita Parish; Sheriff Neal Harwell, Richland Parish; Sheriff Dusty Gates, Union Parish; Sheriff Jason Parker, Webster Parish; Sheriff Sam Dowies, Claiborne Parish; Sheriff Stephen Williams, Lincoln Parish; Retired Sheriff Gary Sexton, Webster Parish; and Sheriff Josh McAllister, Winn

Parish; Retired Sheriff Jay Russell, Ouachita Parish; Sheriff Mike Tubbs, Morehouse Parish; Sheriff Clay Bennett, Caldwell Parish; and Sheriff John Ballance, Bienville Parish.

Cary has a private law practice in Ruston and has been an instructor of Business Law at Louisiana Tech University. He has served as the President of the Lincoln Parish Bar Association and delegate to the Louisiana State Bar.

His leadership and professional reputation were recently recognized with his appointment to the Assistant District Attorney Board of Directors for the Louisiana District Attorneys Association.

Beyond the courtroom, Cary has demonstrated leadership across civic, educational and charitable organizations.

Cary is a former President of both the Rotary Club of Ruston and the Ruston Jaycees; a graduate of Leadership Louisiana and active member of the Council for a Better Louisiana, a former board member of Bayou D'Arbonne Water Shed District; a longtime volunteer with local nonprofits such as Habitat for Humanity, DART (Domestic Abuse Resistance Team), and Life Choices of North Central Louisiana and served as Keynote DART Speaker and a Team Leader for DART Men Standing Strong; a volunteer for Ruston Peach Festival; and has served as committee member for United Way Investment and Troupe Dixie.

Cary's dedication to serving others has been consistent throughout his life—from volunteering during Hurricanes Gustav and Ike to speaking out for victims' rights during National Crime Victims' Rights Week.

Born and raised in Ruston, Cary is a proud graduate of Ruston High School. He graduated with a Criminal Justice degree from the University of Southern Mississippi with honors and a Juris Doctorate from Mississippi College School of Law. Cary is a supporter and coach for youth sports, including Ruston Youth Baseball, and Bearcat Football Club.

Cary and his wife Robyn, owner of Heritage Realty Group, have been married for 26 years and are the proud parents of three children: Garrett (23), Hasson (20) and Brooks (18). The Browns are founding members of Bridge Community Church.
